

Curriculum Vitae

Pei-Min REN

Ren Peimin, graduated from Beijing Institute of Technology, Ph.D. in Management, is a professor and master supervisor of the School of Economics, Qingdao University.

His research interests include financial risk management, patent value measurement, and venture capital. He has published more than 30 academic papers in domestic authoritative and core journals such as "Research on Quantitative and Technical Economics", "Scientific Research Management", "Journal of Information", "Statistical Research", "Chinese Management Science", "Systems Engineering Theory and Practice", etc. He has published many papers in foreign languages such as Communications in Statistics - Theory and Methods. He has published 1 academic monograph. He has presided over national, provincial and ministerial projects such as the National Social Science Foundation Project, the Humanities and Social Sciences Project of the Ministry of Education, and the Soft Science Project of Shandong Province. He has participated in many projects such as the National Natural Science Foundation of China, the Natural Science Foundation of Shandong Province, the Ministry of Education Project, and the Social Science Planning Project of Shandong Province. He has won the first prize of Qingdao Social Science Outstanding Achievement Award, Shandong Provincial Teaching Achievement Award, Shandong Higher Education Outstanding Scientific Research Achievement Award, Shandong Province Soft Science Outstanding Achievement Award and many other awards and honorary titles.

Main undergraduate courses: financial risk management, econometrics; Main postgraduate courses: risk management research, financial derivatives and risk management cases.

He is currently the executive director of Shandong Enterprise Management Research Association, a soft science review expert of Shandong Province, and a member of Qingdao Science and Research Management Research Association.